TECHNICAL PROJECTS:

"Personal Portfolio Website" - Github

This is a personal portfolio that showcases Danielle Ellis' projects and blog posts.

- Ruby on Rails API, React/Redux, JavaScript, HTML/CSS, Bootstrap,
- Utilized Rails API backend and React Redux frontend, which used asynchronous Javascript (with the help of redux-thunk middleware) to make HTTP requests to the API and render them to the user interface.

"Hidden Gems Mentorship" - Github

A workplace mentoring application that allows users to choose a mentor specifically for their work department.

- Ruby on Rails, PostgreSQL, JavaScript, HTML/CSS, Bootstrap, ActiveRecord
- Utilized RESTful APIs and CRUD methodology to build a single page web application that allows all interactions between the client and the server to be handled with AJAX and use JSON as the communication format.

"Virtual Dance Machine" - Github

An application that allows virtual dance class registration and tracking

- Ruby on Rails, JavaScript, HTML/CSS
- Content Management System that allows tracking features through the backend utilization of Ruby on Rails and self-generated RESTful API's. A sleek and clean frontend to allow users to access classes.
